

CHOICE BOARD

"SPY OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION"

Imagine that James Lafayette kept a secret diary about his activities as a spy. Write one of the diary entries. Be sure to give it a date.

Note: This is the prompt that appears at the end of the article.

Imagine you are a journalist reporting on General Cornwallis's surrender at Yorktown. Write a news article that captures the drama and significance of this historic moment.

Your legacy is how you are remembered and the contributions you make during your life. What is James Lafayette's legacy?

Imagine that the U.S. Postal Service wants ideas for people to feature on a new series of stamps. Write an essay explaining why it should choose James Lafayette.